The scenic beauty of the Tweed Valley has inspired and attracted many artists. On this trail, you can see their work in local galleries, watch them create new pieces in their studios and step back in time at some fascinating historical sites.

Start your journey at Tumbulgum, the Tweed's oldest village. Visit the Tumbulgum Gallery and the historic Tavern. At North Tumbulgum you will find the historic cemetery. Visit red Rattlers Gallery at Dungay.

Journey to Murwillumbah for the Caldera Art Gallery, Tweed Regional Gallery & Margaret Olley Art Centre and Tweed Regional Museum. Murwillumbah is also popular for its art deco buildings. Stokers Siding is home to Moo Moo Stitches and the old railway station. Finish your journey with a visit to The Old Butter Factory at Uki which is now an artistic hub.
